Before

BROWN, MOODY, and JACOBSON
Appellate Military Judges

PER CURIAM:

We examined the record of trial, the assignment of error, and the government's answer thereto. The government presented the missing post-trial documents, and, without defense objection, we included them in the record. We conclude that the record is complete within the meaning of Rule for Courts-Martial 1103(c). Therefore, we hold that the appellant is not entitled to new post-trial processing.

The approved findings and sentence are correct in law and fact, and no error prejudicial to the substantial rights of the appellant occurred. Article 66(c), UCMJ, 10 U.S.C. § 866(c); United States v. Reed, 54 M.J. 37, 41 (C.A.A.F. 2000). Accordingly, the approved findings and sentence are

AFFIRMED.
