On 10 April 2013, counsel for the petitioner filed a motion for an emergency stay of the Article 32, UCMJ, investigation scheduled for 12 April 2013 and a Petition for Extraordinary Relief in the Nature of a Writ of Prohibition, asking us to enjoin the government from proceeding with the Article 32, UCMJ, investigation and/or referring his case to a general court-martial.

Pursuant to Rule 20(e) and (f) of the Joint Courts of Criminal Appeals Rules of Practice and Procedure, it is by the Court on this 11th day of April 2013 and Rule 23.2 of the Air Force Court of Criminal Appeals Rules of Practice and Procedure,

ORDERED:

That the Article 32, UCMJ, investigation in the case of United States v. Staff Sergeant Justin G. Porter is hereby stayed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED:

That the United States shall show cause, within ten calendar days of its receipt of this order why the petitioner’s request for extraordinary relief should not be granted. A copy of the government’s response shall be served on the petitioner, who may file a reply within five calendar days after service.
