TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES
AIR FORCE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS:

Submission of Case Without Specific Assignment of Error

The undersigned appellate defense counsel attests he has, on behalf of Appellant, carefully examined the record of trial in this case. Appellant does not admit the findings or sentence are correct in law and fact, but submits the case to this Honorable Court on its merits with no additional specific assignment of error during this stage of appellate review.¹

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW L. BLYTH, Maj, USAF
Appellate Defense Counsel
Appellate Defense Division (AF/JAJA)

¹ Appellant specifically preserves and maintains Assignments of Error I and III, raised in his initial brief to this Court, dated 17 January 2023. On 7 March 2023, this Court remanded to the Chief Trial Judge to account for the missing videos in Prosecution Exhibit 3 and provide functional videos from Prosecution Exhibit 6. (United States v. Paugh, No. ACM 40231, Order of 7 March 2023.) This related to Assignment of Error II. However, Appellant acknowledges that Assignment of Error II is now moot, as the Government has located all missing exhibits.

CERTIFICATE OF FILING AND SERVICE

I certify that the original and copies of the foregoing was sent via email to the Court and served on the Appellate Government Division on 24 April 2023.
